

The Broad Ax

PUBLISHED WEEKLY.

Will promulgate and at all times uphold the true principles of Democracy, but farmers, Catholics, Protestants, Knights of Labor, Infidels, Mormons, Republicans, Priests, or any one else can have their say, so long as their language is proper and responsibility is fixed.

THE BROAD AX is a newspaper whose platform is broad enough for all, ever claiming the editorial right to speak its own mind.

Local communications will have attention; write only on one side of the paper.

CHIPS.

"ALLEN that is born of woman, is of few days and full of trouble"—when he talks of Southern constitutions.

HAVE you read Fog Horn Allen on southern constitutions? The gentlemen evidently took hold of the hot end of the poker, when he tackled that topic. "Our Joe" so completely and everlastingly wiped the earth with him, that he has "that tired feeling" ever since.

HEBER WELLS may be a trick rider on a wheel, and sit on a sofa on the stage, but he has never learned how to ride a Caine, or sit in the governor's chair, and never will.

WE would suggest that Prof. Gleason be recalled, and try his skill on the kickers in the Republican camp; there is more of them to the square inch than anywhere in town.

THE Republicans are now wishing for Col. Ike, and his "barrel." The "Sunshine" has deepened into gloom; and they are wondering if they have "killed the goose that laid the golden egg."

THE Republican campaign reminds one of a swarm of bees without a queen; they are running around in all directions, tumbling over and against each other, and then quieting down to a submissive group as though fate was against them. Even the exuberant Harry McCallum has a dejected air as he vacantly gazes at the Oquirrh range, hoping against hope for the gulls of the lake or the inhabitants of the desert to pull the G. O. P. out of the hole.

COAL.

THE Diamond is twenty-five per cent. better than any other Coal in the market.

THE Plain Double Dealer of last week contained nearly three columns of bad English, and worse logic, trying to get out of the hole of duplicity, but only succeeded in getting in its own filth up to its ears. Its weak attack upon several of the colored citizens of Salt Lake, including the editor of the BROAD AX, only create a smile of pity for the poor wretch who has been caught in his own trap. "Whom the Gods would destroy, they first make mad," and this fellow is now mad enough to bite himself. This crowd and their paper has been "weighed in the balance and found wanting," and their political obituary notice will appear in the BROAD AX inside of six weeks. As there is a law against cruelty to animals, we will desist from any more punishment between now and the funeral.

THE immortal Gods are neither willing nor able to harm us.
